Maison Perle

Perched cliffside above the beach of Saint-Énogat, this apartment offers idyllic sea views and makes the perfect setting for a restorative retreat on the Emerald Coast. From the outset, you'll want to pause and admire the striking facade of this building - it evokes a wonderful sense of tradition and ushers you inside with a warm welcome. Head up one flight of stairs and you'll find this apartment adds a contemporary touch to the rustic charm of its setting. From the light-filled living room styled in calming tones to the simple bedroom (with its own private balcony), every detail inspires a wonderful sense of relaxation. Enjoy quiet mornings with a coffee listening to the sound of the waves, sip refreshing drinks as the sunsets and prepare simple meals inspired by the fresh local produce - Saint-Énogat's weekly market is just a short walk away. And when you're refreshed and ready to explore, wander straight down to the beach or visit the beautiful coves and towns dotted along the coast -

Saint-Malo is less than a twenty-five-minute drive away.
