Blue Mustang

Located in Denver's oh so trendy Lower Downtown neighbourhood, also known as LoDo, this bright and colourful apartment is full of stylish decor, funky art prints and huge windows showing off the city's skyline. Enjoy your morning coffee at the breakfast bar or out on the balcony while taking in the view. Then, catch up on some work in a quiet study room or head downstairs to the gym for a workout before beginning your day of sightseeing. Commons Park, the Museum of Contemporary Art, Coors Field and the Downtown Aquarium are all within walking distance, as is Union Station with its plethora of boutiques, restaurants, bars and weekly farmer's market. You won't even have to leave your building, though, for a day of fun. With a resort-style pool, a creative maker's space and sundeck terraces lined with hammocks and firepit seating, you could spend the whole day just luxuriating at home. After a day of exploring and enjoying the fabulous facilities, turn on the living room's record machine to set the mood for sophisticated sundown drinks before hitting the town to sample the city's food and red-hot music scenes.
