The Mountain Glow

Immersed in a sanctuary of trees, this rustic cabin invites you to enjoy a serene retreat in the Catskill Mountains. Set across five acres and just a six-minute drive from the charming town of Roscoe, there's everything you could need to feel inspired and renewed by the majestic beauty of this special environment. From the atmospheric views to the exceptional styling, every detail has been considered to fill your stay with freedom and ease. And from the moment of arrival, you'll want to pause and savour the calming simplicity of this space. High ceilings and large windows create a wonderful sense of lightness, while the seamless blend of natural tones reflects the beauty of the surroundings. Step outside and you'll discover the expansive deck is ideally positioned for a quiet morning coffee, or later with magical evening drinks and stargazing by the welcoming fire pit. Follow the mountain road and you'll find the bustling town of Livingston Manor is just a fifteen-minute drive away. There's a great selection of cafes, shops and restaurants here, while you'll also find an abundance of opportunities for hiking and fishing – Roscoe is known as Trout Town, USA. Wherever the day takes you, this home provides a constant sense of sanctuary – the perfect setting to light a fire, put on a record and savour the timeless charm of mountain living.
