Spanish Hollywood

This home wouldn't look out of place in the Hollywood Hills with its floor to ceiling windows, mid-century vibe and sparkling pool with an overflowing waterfall. Relax on the decked terrace with a glass of Cava and take in the verdant valley and mountain views. You can enjoy the vistas from inside too. Oak floors, exposed steel and fir wood beams, lots of interesting artworks and a fabulous floating staircase create a stylish interior – it's perfect for entertaining your family and friends. We love the attention to detail in this home – your host Jorge, who is an architect, designed it. If you want to swap the countryside for city life, then vibrant Barcelona is around a forty-five-minute drive – check out Gaudí's masterpieces Casa Batlló, Casa Mila and the Sagrada Familia. Or bask in the sun on the golden sands of Barceloneta Beach. Closer to home, the ancient town of Corbera de Llobregat, surrounded by the Garraf and Ordal mountain ranges, is seven minutes by car.
