Draw The Song

There is plenty to love about this chic apartment, just a few minutes away from South Platte River. A rooftop terrace where you can gather around a fire pit or swing beneath twinkling lights in a hammock with a view of the city skyline? Check. A comfortable living room to spend quiet evenings in front of a box set after a long day exploring the city? Check. A private office for a productive working holiday? Check. A location that means you don't have to catch a cab for dinner or wait for a train to visit an art gallery? Check, check and check. This cosy one-bedroom apartment comes with all these features and more, including things you didn't even know you wanted – like a pool for summer swims, a fully equipped gyms for early morning workouts, and even an in-house dog grooming parlour.
