Belong To Me

This stunning Victorian warehouse has been converted into a stylish, vibrant home in Borough, one of London's most interesting neighbourhoods. You'll be just a short stroll from Borough Market, as well as being next to Southwark Cathedral and Clink Street. For exploration further afield, you need only walk 190 metres to London Bridge station to hop on the Jubilee Line. We love the terrace, from which you can admire the Shard, and the quirky, colourful decor. There are lots of stairs to climb so it won't be suitable for everyone, but if you can manage them, you'll be rewarded with one of the coolest bases in Borough.
