Emerald Coast Gem

This contemporary gem offers an idyllic coastal base from which to explore the charming town of Saint-Lunaire and its Emerald Coast. After a day soaking up the sun on the sands of De Longchamp Beach and admiring the scenery from Pointe De La Garde Guérin, this is an inviting home to return to. Inside, you'll find a crisp white palette, natural textures and modern furnishings. Start your day with a couple of warm and flaky croissants at the sleek table, then head out to Rocher Napoleon, where you can admire the sprawling Atlantic views. When you return home, pop open a bottle of Chenin Blanc and sink into the cosy sofa with your holiday read. Next, rustle up a regional dinner of buckwheat galettes in the dynamic kitchen. You'll fall blissfully asleep in the calm and coastal bedroom and awake ready to take on a hike along the Emerald Coast. Location-wise, you're a few minutes' walk from De Longchamp Beach, where you can spend days enjoying picnics and making memories with your loved ones.
