River Blues

Across the street from South Platte River, this sleek home-from-home apartment is conveniently located in Denver's bustling Lower Downtown neighbourhood, known as LoDo for short. Making ingenious use of the space, you're all set up for longer working stays or short city breaks, with style and comfort the main focus here. Lovingly decorated, with colourful furnishings, abstract art adorning the walls and funky ornaments, there's a chic '70s flavour around the home. With natural light coming in from vast windows, the city's skyline is never out of view. Enjoy your morning coffee on the shared balcony in one of the extra comfy hammocks to ease you into the day. There's plenty to keep you busy with a communal outdoor pool, a gym and 24-hour fitness centre, plus a cool chill-out sundeck. Make the most of the area and visit nearby Commons Park, the Museum of Contemporary Art and a host of restaurants, bars and boutiques in the lower downtown neighbourhood, then end the day with a couple of drinks around the fire pit.
