Queen City Of The West

Convenient and chic despite its small size, this studio apartment in Denver's trendy LoDo neighbourhood is an easy way to life as a local. The compact set-up is ideal for a couple or solo traveler staying in Denver for business or fun. It's not a large space, but you'll still find colourful details and a smart layout, including a fully-equipped kitchen with its own barstool seating area. Outside of the studio, the building has several shared amenities like a swimming pool, gym and a business suite to make your day-to-day simple. Down at street level, there are a plethora of nearby eateries, live music venues, and the lovely South Platte River. Come prepared with your walking shoes because sites like the Museum of Contemporary Art Denver and Confluence Park are also right in the neighbourhood.
