Slice Of Sky

Surrounded by skyline and soaring scrapers, this city apartment boasts a central Chicago location that sets you up for an instant retreat. With artwork and windows out onto River North for decoration, this home's style could not be more fitting of its urban exterior. Greyscale met with colour and splashes of pattern epitomises the modern city-goer and stands out with its generous balcony – perfect for morning coffees. If you arrive here as busy as the commuters down below, dedicated workspace and high speed Wi-Fi is ready and waiting to make your life that little bit easier. But, if it's high speed entertainment you seek, you can be walking the likes of Oak Street Beach, Michigan Avenue, and Gold Coast all within minutes. After hours exploring Millennium Park, museums, even the Lincoln Park Zoo and onto glamorous bars and restaurants, you will be grateful for the generous, king-sized, memory foam mattress that awaits your heavy head to end the night. With everything at your fingertips, this is a stay to satisfy all creatures of culture and comfort.
