Sierra Skies

Sitting peacefully on the western edge of Denver, this Wheat Ridge home welcomes you to experience the majestic charm of Colorado. From mountain adventures to Red Rocks concerts and sunset strolls along trendy Tennyson Street (just a five-minute drive away), you'll find every sense satisfied with the uplifting spirit of this location. And when you're looking for total relaxation, this home invites you to step inside and enjoy the laid-back charm of the American Southwest. From the warm palette of colours and soft furnishings to the bright, open design, this is the perfect setting for intimate gatherings. And with three living spaces alongside five bedrooms, you'll find an abundance of space to unwind and share quality time together. Enjoy a quiet morning coffee in the backyard, savour a long soak in the hot tub, play games of badminton and gather everyone together for sunset drinks and barbecue meals. In whatever way you choose to spend your time here, it's the kind of space that inspires you to settle in and make it your own. From here, it's just a fifteen-minute drive to Downtown Denver, while Sloan's Lake is only ten minutes away. And for those in search of an exhilarating adventure, there's easy access to the I-70 for hiking and skiing in the Rocky Mountains, visiting Golden or treating yourself to an unforgettable Red Rocks concert.
