If you are looking for one of the best places to live in Boston, look no further. This 738-square-foot, one-bedroom, one-bathroom apartment is located on the first floor in the heart of one of the best neighborhoods. The room can accommodate a queen-size bed. This is a smoke-free apartment. WiFi is available, and there is a communal laundry room in the building. Other features include radiator heating, new appliances, and street parking. It is a short eight-minute walk to the Haymarket station to catch the Orange Line and eleven minutes away from the Aquarium station for the Blue Line. Known today for its authentic Italian cuisine, numerous establishments, and variety of tourist attractions, North End is Boston's oldest residential community. Less than half a mile in total square footage, everything is within walking distance from your home. However small, this Suffolk County neighborhood has a population of over 10,000. You will never have to worry about where to eat or what to do in North End Boston. This neighborhood is packed with historic sites such as the Old North Church and The Paul Revere House. You will no doubt get a taste of what being a true Bostonian is all about by living in the North End. Your safety and comfort are our top priorities! To ensure this, we ask all our new members to complete a background and credit check, as well as electronically sign a separate residency agreement. Just a heads up, you'll need to share your ID and Social Security Number (for those in the US) with us. We'll shoot over the agreement right after you book, and we kindly ask you to sign it quickly to guarantee your room. For your credit, we're looking for scores above 550-650, depending on your city and we'll need a clean criminal record too (this doesn't apply to DC). If you meet all the requirements, you will receive the agreement which you need to sign within 24 hours. This property is tailored for long-term stays and is not like a traditional short-term rental. For example, we do not provide towels, linens, or other similar amenities. Guests are required to bring these items with them. We hope this setup meets your needs for an extended stay, and we look forward to hosting you! Notice: Displayed prices and data are not final, and should be used for informative purpose only.
